

As many of you have probably noticed as you are out and about, there are these containers at many businesses that are there to remind you to give “Just a Dollar” to the Mount Airy Museum of Regional History. I think the campaign is a great idea to help keep the museum’s programs thriving.

Read more: Mount Airy News - A dollar can make such a difference