Without an army of volunteers, much of the programming would not be available at the Mount Airy Museum of Regional History, so on Monday the museum held its 15th annual volunteer brunch to honor their work.

Angela Yacano was honored as volunteer of the year, although she was not able to attend. Rick Smith was honored as docent of the year.

Read more: Mount Airy News - Yacano Smith honored as museum volunteers